Remember

- Synonyms mean the same (big – large). Antonyms mean the opposite (hot – cold).
- will → a decision now, a promise, a guess: I will help you. going to → a plan, or something you can see is coming: It is going to rain.
- Common nouns are general (city). Proper nouns name one special thing and start with a capital letter (Asunción, Monday).
- R-controlled vowels: ar (car, farm) · or (corn, fork) · ore (more, store).
- Compare = how things are alike (both, also, same). Contrast = how they are different (but, however, unlike). Key words and academic words: review in the textbook.

Two Friends, Two Homes

Carla lives on a farm. Every morning, she feeds the horses and the pigs. She plays in a big yard with her dog. At night, the sky is dark and she can see many stars.

Jorge lives in the city. Every morning, he walks to the store with his dad. He plays soccer in a park near his building. At night, the city is bright and noisy.
